FEW WOMEN LAUGH HEARTILY

Whether Due to Lack of Humor of Childhood's Training is Unknown, But Fact Remains.

Women laugh too little. Whether this is due to their lack of humor or to childhood's training in gentle manmers may be questioned. Certain it is that a hearty laugh in a woman's voice is rare music. An audience of women rustles with amusement, but seldom laughs. A group of girls giggle, but do not laugh. A woman reading the most brilliantly humorous story seldom gets beyond a smile. When Bir Walter Besant, in his clever skit, The Revolt of Man," pictured the time in the twentieth century when women should have usurped all power -political, ecclesiastical and socialhe shrewdly noted that laughter had clied out in England; and when men revolted against their feminine tysants, they came back to their own with peals of laughter. A Paris docfor has recently opened a place for the laughter cure. It is a private ligion and art, from one point of view, sestitution, and large fees are charged. each other. The smile broadens to a fairy palace, the place of hourly miraor the habit of laughing easily and that no man can love his neighbor un-

"Speed" Means to Acquire Success. When we use the slang "too slow' as applied to non-success we are speaking correctly, according to etymology, for "slow" conveys an idea opposite to that of "speed," and for more than 10,000 years the root from which "speed" has grown has preserved its influence in a dozen lantuages and has continually signified chase a shoestring without critical the idea of quickness in grasping, in drawing to, in extending, in making room for action, in bringing prosperity and success by reaching out.

Our Aryan ancestors used the little among scores of other words, our for success. It meant having room there is a continual cycle of changes. for action, to increase in the direction It is only when it comes to our beof prosperity. Without "spa" there was no "success."

Poets' Wills.

Famous poets make interesting wills. Browning's was written in his own beautiful hand, with the initials ever, because no executor was apof administration; but the result was the same. These two famous wills probate in England.

Good Word for the Widows. When a man is left with a lot of motherless children on his bands, he usually scatters them among his relatives. If it is the woman who is left with fatherless little ones, she keeps them together and earns a living besides. Women develop great enegry when left without a man. In fact, all the widows we know are getting along a great deal better than the married women.-Atchison Globe.

There are more than 20 varieties of tulips to be found growing wild in the country about Florence, the earliest of these, a tall, scarlet one with very handsome flowers, being generally found among the corn; later on there is a dainty, small, striped red and white one, and various lovely yellows, in shades varying from pale lemon to a deep orange tint, with re-Cex petals.-"In a Tuscan Garden."

Overcome Adversity.

The waves which sorrow lashes up around us stand high between us and the world and make our ship solitary in the midst of a baven full of vessels. Cannot one do like the fair sun, and go under the waves and yet come back again. And yet, after all, if you look upon his going down rightly there is no such thing in reality,-

GREAT PAINTER THRIFTY MAN

Even to Generous Patron Turner Begrudged the Opening of Bottle of Wine.

Apropos of Turner's meanness, it is told how Gillot, a patron of Turner, called upon the great painter to purchase his work and said: "Now, Turner, I have bought many picture of yours, and have spent thousands of pounds, but you have never even offered a glass of wine. Yet I am told that you have some of the best-grand old stuff you buy down the Thames when you go to your favorite haunts among the smugglers and others. Out with it! I will not leave your studio until I have tasted

"Turner reluctantly produced a bottle of old port and grumbling all the time, poured out a glass. The connoisseur drank it.

"Well, I never! That's the finest glass of wine I have ever tasted. You mean old fraud! I'll be equal to you next time."

Next year Gillot came around again. After business, wine was suggested, and, after some difficulty, Turner had to produce his port. Gillot drank it, and then spluttered:

"Oh, good gracious! Am I poisoned? What's this? Some of your infernal bitumen, or what?"

"No; that's all right. It must befor you praised my port last year, and that is out of the very same bottle."

Misfortune of Dullness.

Following the Fashion. Many women, and men as well, are disturbed if they feel that the clothes they wear are in the slighteset particular obsolete. They cannot buy a pocket hankerchief without the auxious inquiry whether it is what everybody else is wearing, or purscrutiny and comparison. Not merely in clothes is the fashion followed, but in social diversions. A Family Name.

A new boy had made his appearance in the schoolroom, and Miss Adair, the teacher, summoned him to her desk. "Do you expect to come to school here regularly?" she asked him. "Ves'm."

"Where do you live? Are you in this district?" "I guess so. I live down this street bout four blocks."

"What is your name?"

"Martin Luther Hicks."

"Martin Luther?" said the teacher.
"I presume, Martin, you know for whom you were named?"

"Yes'm," answered the boy, brightening up. "I was named after me uncle, on me mother's side. He keeps a liv'ry stable."-Youth's Companion,

All Directors.

He was the wag of a merry party on the train, and when the conductor appeared he leaned back and as sumed the expression of a man who owned the line. "Ticket, sir?"

The joker nodded. "Ticket?"

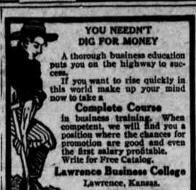

Then the joker spoke freezingly: 'How long have you been stationed here, my man? Don't you know me? I'm Hank, director!"

But the ticket collector wasn't im-

"That's funny," he said, "so am Iwe're all directors about here. I'll direct ye to the stationmaster, he'll direct ye to the policeman, and he'll direct ye to the magistrate, and he'll direct ye to pay the fine-unless he directs ye to fail-and then-"

But the joker directed his hand to his pocket and produced the ticket.
